VOTED

The Whitsitt Resolutions By 177 Majority.

The Discussion Concluded—Cuban Resolution Introduced.

When the forms closed for the regular edition Saturday the discussion on the Whitsitt matter was in progress. A second edition briefly gave the result of the vote. The following is a part of the unfinished discussion:

Third speaker, Dr. W. H. Felix said in part:

"I have had positive convictions since the meeting at Chattanooga. I most heartily concur in the resolutions. I wish it understood where I stand. I have never seen any intimation that Dr. Whitsitt wants my sympathy. He hardly recognizes me when he sees me. We are called the rabble. No man not of the elite can differ from those of the other side. But I have my opinion. The other side say they don't know anything about the question, don't care to read, don't care whether Dr. Whitsitt is right or wrong. 'I'm for Uncle Billie,' and they censure us who do care. They ought to have convictions. I stand here because Dr. Whitsitt has done more to prejudice other denominations against the Baptists than any

I went to the books and found he misquoted, garbled and made mistakes. I spent time to get the truth. I got it. I have no apology to offer. I have always studied originals for twenty-five years. There are one thousand errors in Dr. Whitsitt's book, 'A question in Baptist history.' These errors are all in favor of Dr. Whitsitt and against the Baptists. Therefore he is utterly unfit to be the President of the Seminary. Things in his mind and not in the authorities occur frequently in his book. The things from the Kiffin MS. are not in it at all, but were introduced from another place and called a discovery. I read a paragraph from the book. I turn to the Boston edition (1813) of Benedict's Baptist history to prove the statement that the word 'immersion' does not occur, is absolutely false. He did this. He is not fit to be the President of a Baptist Seminary. Everywhere you open this book you find like remarkable misstatements. Dr. Hague (1846) is misquoted the same way. How could he thus write against his own brethren? At Bowling Green he was making his mis-statements, and I was sitting just in front of him with the book he was thus mutilating in my hand. I have never had such feelings to come over me. I am speaking of Featley's 'Dippers Dipped.'"

I think there is no trouble in understanding the English I am using in this connection.

Dr. Whitsitt left out introductions and began in the middle of paragraphs, so changing the whole drift of meanings. So I believe he should not be the President of any Baptist Seminary.

This was one of the strongest speeches we have heard on this side of the subject.

Those who opposed the resolution now announced Dr. F. H. Kerfoot to speak for them.

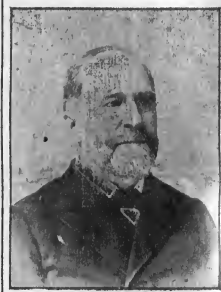

He said in part: This is one of the most painful moments of my life. I made no preparation. I expected no fight. I've been in or caucus. I am not willing to go into the personalities of this discussion. I speak for the good of the Seminary alone.

Only two things could force me to speak; first an anticipated split in the Southern Baptist Convention; second, the breaking of the relation between the Convention and the Seminary. You do not touch the most serious point of the report. This is your Seminary. Because of something in it you do not like you propose to throw up your Seminary, refuse it a chance, crush it if possible. Dr. Boyce said of old if the Seminary is not what you want it to be make it so. Whether there is a real or a fancied taint are you going on that account to destroy or try to destroy the Seminary? It has taken forty years to build it up. Will this remove the trouble? Will this remove a professor takes a view you do not like, refuse all support until it suits you exactly. Another point, the spirit that because you can't control the institution as you would like or as soon as you like, you will urge the separation from the convention. Think, act slowly. The Seminary has had given it the lives of Boyce, Broadus, Williams and Manly, and the thousands of dollars which you all have contributed. Would you cripple it? If this matter ever passes, it will be done by a junction of the extremes. Cut loose from the Seminary, what then? To-day the denomination can make itself felt. Cut it loose you can control it no longer. Professors can then teach what they please. The Seminary has $800,000. It can live on this. Now you can say something, if you carry this resolution you can no longer do anything. I want to be cut loose from the Seminary if it is cut loose from the Baptists. Let it be bound a thousand times more closely rather than this. Do not rush madly on that which it has taken years to build, and destroy the grandest monument of Southern Baptists. It can't be done by dash, by rush. Let public sentiment crystallize, then the denomination can carry out its will. Do not throw away in a few years your grand institution. Leave the matter to the committee appointed under the Carroll resolution at Norfolk.

Prof. A. T. Robertson spoke next somewhat as follows:

We must get the attitude of the whole South. The Seminary belongs to the Baptists of the South.

REV. J. W. WARDEN.

Consider this. Neither Kentucky nor Virginia has a right to control the Seminary, but the Baptists of the South. We are not thinking of the Baptists of other States. We are divided on a great many different things, this is a large country. The religious atmosphere of the different States is not the same. We are all agreed on all leading doctrines, but there are some doctrines on which we are not united. The most extreme positions were taken two years ago when this was a mere historical question. He was at once called unsound, not a Baptist because of his historical position. We have lost sight of the main issue. '1641' is but a day in the great realm of history.

Here ensued a lively tilt between Dr. Coleman and Prof. Robertson, which caused much mirth in the audience. Dr. Robertson then said: This trouble has been in the denomination years and years. It existed before the war of 1861-65. In '72-'74 resolutions were passed condemning the Seminary on account of Dr. Williams' views on Alien immersion. I have letters from Boyce to Broadus about this discussion. Dr. Boyce said:

"Soul liberty is worth more than Alien immersion even among Land-markers." My only point is this: We are divided on many points. Who are the Baptists? Are we or are the other fellows? Let us have soul liberty. Let us agree to disagree.

Dr. Carter Helm Jones then spoke in part as follows:

I wish to beg you not to adopt this resolution. You say the Trustees have waved aside all your resolutions. Have they? I do not think so. They have carefully considered them and courteously answered them. No institution ever had wiser or abler men than these. And after all due deliberation they decided that Dr. Whitsitt had done nothing to merit his being turned out. Don't we have to trust them?

Is the matter not entrusted to their charge. I feel too deeply and sadly to bandy words or match phrases. I have never heard you called the rabble. I have never used the term. Have these brethren proved that this resolution should be passed? I think not. Have the Southern Baptists demanded this? Not at Wilmington, not at Norfolk, not in Maryland, nor in Virginia, nor in North Carolina, nor in South Carolina, or Missouri. The trustees did not think it wise to subvert a Missionary body into an ecclesiastical court. How has the past year shown him to be unfit? Has the Seminary gone to wreck? I studied under him. He is wise, careful and successful. The students are there, the personnel is good. What is the trouble? When Dr. Whitsitt meets Dr. Christian on a subject of scholarship it does not take me long to decide who has the best of it. I read Dr. Whitsitt's book and see very different things from those Dr. Christian found. We must not get out of accord with the great Baptist brotherhood of the South. If the date '1641' bothers you, you have already put yourself on record twice. Let the matter alone. Let the trustees decide it. Let us have essentials unity, in non-essentials liberty, in all things charity."

Rev. J. O. Rust then spoke in part:

"If I believed as Dr. J. T. Christian does I would make his accusation to the Board of Trustees and let them sift and weigh the matter. I sat by an eminent jurist as that speech was being made. He said he could reach no conclusion from that speech. No man can answer the speeches on the other side of this question, for they are all wide of the resolution. Dr. Whitsitt is a Baptist. He who says he is not misrepresents him, misunderstands him."

Is Dr. Whitsitt merely incidental in this attack? This attack is against the Seminary. If he should go, make him go, but I beg do not for one man wreck out Seminary. Will you not halt and think? Behind that leading step there is marching into the heart of the convention, the disruption of the greatest Baptist constituency on this earth. Leave the matter to the Committee appointed. If this resolution is passed, Dr. Coleman, himself on that Committee, can not act with justice and judgment. Pause and think and do not act so as to harm the Seminary.

The last speaker on this side, Dr. W. O. Carver, then delivered a strong speech on his side of this much discussed question. He was followed by Rev. Z. T. Colby and in turn by Dr. T. T. Eaton. Lack of space prevents our reporting these most excellent speeches.

Dr. Eaton spoke in part as follows:

"I asked all moderators two questions. 'What do you think ought to be done with the Whitsitt question?' Second, 'How should it be done?' I wrote to 57 and 53 answered, against Whitsitt. North

PROF. A. C. DAVIDSON.

Carolina sentiment is overwhelming against Dr. Whitsitt. Dr. Whitsitt believes he stands for a great principle. Here Dr. Whitsitt raised his eyes and hands to Heaven and said: 'I do in the name of the Lord.' Let us ask all District Assemblies to take up this question. (CONTINUED ON 4TH PAGE.)

In Blue Arrive At Santiago To Invade Cuba.

Gen. Shafter's Army of 16,000 Are Ready To Land.

GENERAL SHAFTER.

NEW YORK, June 20.—(Special.)

—A Journal dispatch from Mole St. Nicholas says Gen. Shafter's army of 16,000 soldiers on a flotilla of 49 vessels has arrived off Santiago and Guantanamo and a landing will probably be made to-day.

Following is an official estimate of Gen. Shafter's forces:

Infantry, (regulars) 9520; Cavalry, 2640; Light artillery, 300; Heavy artillery, 200; Signal corps, 100; Volunteer infantry, 3000; Engineers, 200; Volunteer cavalry, 500; Officers, 1000. Total 16,460.

Another Report From Manila.

Victoria, June 20.—(Special.)—Manila advises say that the steamers Boston and Concord, that left May 12th to attack Iloilo captured the place without resistance. The Saranac seized by the Spanish gunboat was found deserted and recaptured. The Americans have plenty of coal, having captured 6,000 tons at Cavite arsenal.

Col. San Miguel, of the Spanish artillery, after inspecting the small stock of ammunition at his disposal, committed suicide. Montejó, the "fighting Admiral" praised for bravery deserves disgrace, say the correspondents. He fled from ship to ship and was among the first ashore at the battle of Manila.

Believe Havana Will Be Burned.

Key West, June 20.—(Special.)—The Cubans feel certain that Havana will be burned and Cervera's ships destroyed when capture becomes inevitable. The monitor Terror arrived here to-day. A government vessel brings two men from Havana, one a Spanish pilot who deserted Blanco and the other a Cuban spy. They have complete charts of Havana fortifications and mines in the harbor.

France's Very Bad Faith.

Paris, June 20.—(Special.)—Austrian commission agents have returned from Madrid where they delivered 3,000,000 cartridges and 120 tons of explosives. This shows how easy it is to deliver contraband goods through France, that government's efforts to prevent it being merely nominal.

Camara's Feet Not Formidable.

Dublin, June 20.—(Special.)—Freeman's Journal says: English experts report Camara's Cadiz fleet in a frightful condition. The arsenal and ships are grossly neglected. Vessels are short of ammunition and the armament can't be fixed at Cadiz.

Two More Ships Sail.

Port Monroe, June 20.—(Special.)—The Newark and the destroyer Yankton sailed yesterday, mission and destination unknown.

Another Refusal to Exchange.

Washington, June 20.—(Special.)—Commodore Watson has reported to the Navy Department that Blanco refuses to exchange Hubson.

Manila Believed to Have Fallen.

Madrid June 20.—(Special.)—The belief prevails here that Manila has surrendered.

REV. A. T. ROBERTSON.

other man alive. We must fight over his head, against his principles. Why did he want to take a Pseudo-baptist stand? Why write damaging articles, sign no name, and remain so long silent? As long as he is at the head of the Seminary that statement about Baptist history will be an obstacle to Baptist progress. They will say the head of your Seminary does not believe on Baptism as you do. Many Pseudo-baptists formerly troubled are now quiet, and because of Dr. Whitsitt's position. If it is good enough for Baptists, it will suit other denominations. Sprinkle or baptize, it is all right. Dr. Whitsitt says so. You have to fight the world, the flesh and the devil over Dr. Whitsitt's head. Not one dollar more of my money, not one mite more of my influence shall ever go to the Seminary as long as he is President. And the Treasurer's books show that I have a right to make this statement."

The fourth speaker, Dr. J. J. Christian, said in part:

"I have been accused of saying some very ugly things. I have never said any such thing. I never questioned a man's motives. I love facts. Dr. W. made statements

The most significant development of last week was the increasing gravity of the threatened complications with Germany. The presence of German warships at Manila is in itself not a reassuring circumstance.

The rumor that Spain has "sold" the Philippines to Germany was also given currency from London. A German captain is alleged to have declared at Manila, at a Spanish gathering, that America would never annex the Philippines while William was Emperor. Added to these reports comes the statement from Washington yesterday that the declaration of independence by the Philippine leaders on Friday is bringing up new complications. It is feared that Germany may use the capture of Manila by the insurgents as a pretext to land a force of marines "to guard German interests," but really to force a collision of some sort with the Americans.

The growing hostility of Germany and France is now a subject of much comment in the press.

The opinion is gaining ground that Germany will protect whenever the American flag is raised over the Philippines, and the war may become far more serious than it is now. Of course the useless delay in invading and conquering Cuba has given opportunity for new difficulties to arise and if the war is carried over until next year, as a Presidential election issue, as now seems to be the purpose of the Republican administration, other nations are almost sure to be drawn into it.

Daniel George, of Hampstead, N. H., aged 52, is the sole survivor of the daring expedition of Lieut. W. B. Cushing, who in 1864 built the confederate gunboat Albemarle with a torpedo in the Roanoke river. He took with him only twelve men, several of whom were killed in the explosion. The torpedo was the first ever used and was attached to a spar on a small launch, both vessels being sunk by the explosion. George and Cushing were two of the survivors who swam ashore and escaped.

The Owensboro Messenger takes this view of the Whittitt matter:

"The Messenger is theological editor does not pretend to understand all the various side lines of the Whittitt controversy, but it seems certain that Dr. Whittitt wrote as a historical fact what the great body of his Baptist brethren did not endorse or believe. Thus believing, the association could not do otherwise than rebuke him. When a man can not resist the protests of his church or his political party, the place for him is on the outside."

The Government has given Cervera and Blanco to understand that there will be some first class hanging in high places when Cuba is taken, if anything happens to Hobson and his companions while they are in Spanish hands. In other words, having refused to exchange the Spanish commanders will be held personally responsible for their safety.

Camara's fleet, after making a feint at starting, went from Cadiz, turned and entered the Mediterranean and it is believed will wait at Cartagena for orders. The idea that the fleet will pass through the Suez canal and attempt a 7,000 mile voyage to the Philippines, leaving Spain unprotected, is regarded as ridiculous in the extreme and something not at all liable to occur.

The Democratic convention at West Liberty Wednesday, in the Tenth Congressional district, will not be a walkover. Fitzpatrick is at first seemed probable. There are five or six candidates and the race is very much mixed. Fitzpatrick, Garner, Sublett, Kinsolving, Pollard and White all have instructed votes.

The great question now that correspondents are unable to agree about, is whether Camara's fleet is going in or coming out.

Five more transports with 4200 men will sail for Manila June 25, giving Gen. Merritt 10,200 men who can be in Manila in three weeks. Admiral Dewey also has a fighting force of 1,800 marines.

ORNAMENT BEATEN.

An Unknown Wins in the Great Suburban Race.

A New York special of Saturday gives this account of the defeat of Mr. W. P. Norton's great horse, Ornament:

New York, June 18.—Tillo first and the great Ornament nowhere was the record of the Suburban of 1898. The favorite was badly beaten, chiefly because the horses were kept a full hour at the post.

When the bugle called the contenders to the post there was but little unoccupied space in the great grand stand, on the roof, or on the lawn. It was almost half-past 4 o'clock when the eleven candidates were in the hands of Starter Fitzgerald, and then came a wearisome wait. After several false starts, finally all came down together, and they were off on their journey exactly an hour after they had reached the starting point.

As they neared the three-quarter pole Hamilton urged Ogdan a bit, and as they flashed past the mark he was a length to the good. Imp showed a head in front of Royal Stag, while Clayton moved Tillo into fourth place. Ornament was actually in last place, and Sloan was driving for all he was worth. It was only a short distance home, and there seemed no chance for him to win. Foot by foot Ornament cut down the lead of the others, and when he had worked his way up to eighth place Sloan evidently saw it was useless and gave up a very badly ridden race. It was but a short drive around the turn, and then their noses were in the stretch, with Ogdan a length in front. Clayton, on Tillo, had moved up into second place, crowding past Imp, who was about ready to stop.

As they straightened out for home, little Maher, on Semper Ego, began to thread his way through the maze of flying hoofs, and almost before the others knew it he was overhauling them rapidly. There was but a furlong to go and Ogdan began to waver. In a few strides Tillo had the front ranks, and it could be plainly seen that it was all over. He passed the wire half a length in front of Semper Ego, who had snatched the place away from Ogdan in the last few strides through the good riding of Maher. Don de Oro was a bad fourth, and the others were beaten off.

Hartford Votes For Prohibition.

Hartford, Ky., June 20.—In an election held here Saturday to determine whether the present law regarding the sale of liquors in the town of Hartford should become inoperative, the Prohibitionists received a majority of thirty votes. The election will probably be contested. Hartford has been a "wet" town for the past three years, and the verdict of Saturday's election will not become effective for a period of nearly a year, license having been granted recently to two saloons.

Russell Gets Twenty Years.

Princeton, Ky., June 20.—After being out for thirty-six hours the jury in the case of James Russell for murder, fixed his punishment Saturday at twenty years in the penitentiary. Russell was convicted as being a member of a mob that killed Berry Howton and shot old man Hewlett Howton in this county in July, 1895.

The "meanest man" on record—with the possible exception of the man who will read a newspaper a year and then have his postmaster mark it "refused"—has been found in New York. He attempted to pawn his baby for money to buy whisky. His name is Michael Hart.

It has been almost a week since any "heavy cannonading" was heard off the coast of New England.

Dewey's first relief expedition is expected to reach Manila on Tuesday of this week.

Have you bought your war bonds yet? If not, what are you waiting for.

MRS. WINTERS WILL RECOVER.

The Woman Shot by Her Husband at Adams Wednesday.

It is now thought that Mrs. Ike Winters, who was shot by her husband Wednesday at Adams, Robertson county, Tennessee, while suffering from the effect of a protracted spree, will recover. News from her bedside stated, that unless inflammation sets in there are no fears entertained as to the result of her wound. The child shot will also recover. Mrs. Winters has already filed suit for divorce.

A Conning Tower Victim.

A Washington correspondent writes: The death of Capt. Charles V. Gridley, who was in charge of Admiral Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, at the battle of Manila Bay, probably was due to injuries from concussion resulting from the firing of the heavy guns on his splendid cruiser. During the battle he remained in the conning tower, while Admiral Dewey was on the bridge, those two officers probably taking this precaution to prevent the possibility of both being killed by the same shell. Probably the captains of the other ships preferred the conning tower. Capt. Widger, for example, stood on the bridge of Boston with a fan in his hand to blow the smoke away. Gridley in the conning tower seems to have met the fate which has been prophesied by naval experts for those who should resort to that place of refuge.

Cincinnati, O., June 20.—(Special.)—The smokeless powder finishing house of the King Powder Co., thirty miles from here, was blown up last night and completely demolished. A man, presumably a foreigner, who is said to have caused the explosion, was picked up badly injured. His alleged partner was seen running away. The sheriff is in pursuit.

MANY INDICTMENTS.

Large Number Returned Against Bank and Turnpike Officials.

The grand jury yesterday morning returned a large number of indictments against prominent citizens, directors and officers in the various turnpike companies of the county, charging them with "failing to make settlement with the County Court." There are thirteen of the gentlemen indicted, representing four of the principal companies, as follows: Christian County Union Turnpike Co.; Hopkinsville, Nashville and Bradsford Road Turnpike Co.; Kentucky and Tennessee Turnpike Road Co.; Hopkinsville and Clarksville Branch Turnpike Co.

Another indictment that will cause something of a sensation was returned against James W. Boyd, late workhouse keeper, charging him with "knowingly holding an office after his term expired."

OTHER INDICTMENTS.

Hiram Kenner, col., malicious shooting.
Same, carrying concealed deadly weapons.
Same and Ellen Fox, fornication.
Henry Hopper and Carrie Dulin, fornication.

A WOMAN SHOT.

Jennie Durrett, Col. A Victim of John Brinkley's Pistol.

Given a Flesh Wound in the Hip Saturday Night Near Casky.

It is a cold Saturday night in June when a colored shooting affair does not occur somewhere in Christian county.

Saturday night it took place in the public road near Casky, about 11 o'clock at night. John Brinkley shot Jennie Durrett, the wife of Jack Durrett, the pistol ball taking effect in her right side and ranging downward into her hip.

If there was provocation for the shooting, it has not come to light.

The woman was walking along the road with her young stepson when Brinkley appeared and as soon as he saw her fired at her. He had previously called at her home for her, at Mr. A. G. Bell's. Not finding her he started out to hunt her, as she had gone to Mr. G. W. Winfree's not far away.

When the woman was shot she fell in the road and remained there with Brinkley standing near by until the boy went after her husband. She is a large woman weighing 200 pounds and as soon as help came she was removed to her home. Brinkley followed and tried to get the husband to accept a compromise and not report it.

He is still at large, probably hiding in the vicinity. The grand jury is investigating the affair.

Brinkley will probably claim that the shooting was accidental.

The woman will not be likely to die.

The Wells Boarding House.

From Wednesday evening before the Ministers' meeting began upon Thursday morning last, the "Wells Boarding House Delegation" began to assemble and continued to grow until we reached the number of seventeen.

As to the royal manner of entertainment given at the Wells boarding house we desire to say: The house is modern and elegant, beautifully located, handsomely furnished, with bathing department beyond description. The rooms are commodious, well lighted and ventilated, and the beds have of rest to the weary and worn; indeed, a man not tired can find rest upon them. And what can we say in justice to the dining hall, and especially of the long tables groaning with good things for the "inner man"?

We venture to say at least this much, that no delegation to the General Association has fared more sumptuously than we, and then the patient, untiring landlady—we do not hope to find words expressive of her kindness and hospitality, but we do desire to give this public appreciation of our home in the "Wells House" and thank the assignment committee for sending us to this home.

W. H. WILLIAMS, Ch'm.

T. C. MABAY, Clerk

Of Delegation.

He Lost a Leg.

Upshaw Merritt, col., of this city, fell under an L. & N. train at Henderson about 1 o'clock this morning and one leg was cut off below the knee. One of Merritt's hands was also badly crushed and three fingers had to be amputated. An excursion was run over this division of the L. & N. road to Evansville Sunday and Merritt was a passenger. He was enroute home when the accident happened, but further particulars could not be learned.

Burglars Make a haul.

Sometime last Saturday night burglars effected an entrance into the store of Mr. J. R. Reeves, on South Main, by prizing off one of the iron bars of a window, and carried off a lot of goods. The cash drawer was opened and all the cash, about $150, was taken. Among other merchandise missing was a lot of pocket cutlery, several boxes of cigars and cigarettes. As soon as the theft was discovered the police were notified and are now at work on the case.

sociations to express what they feel and desire about the matter. I have tried to get the trustees to investigate this matter but they twice refused, and instead of settling the question they merely gave it back to general discussion. They call for liberty! liberty! Liberty for what? To say that Benedict and Hague do not say things they do say? To say a woman should join her husband's church when she should not? Dr. Whitsett may be a Baptist, but he is not up to my standard. He is too much a Baptist to take a pedit-Baptist standpoint. They say Vedder, Newman and Barge endorse these things, he says. They tell me they do not: while Thomas, Parker, Underhill and many others utterly repudiate Dr. Whitsett's idea and laugh at his conclusion. I want to see him to talk on these subjects, he refused to talk about it. The Seminary is proved not to be under Baptist control. There are 59 Trustees, vacancies caused only by death. It would take thirty years for their denomination to make a change. Don't let the Seminary go entirely. This is a conditional arrangement. We are but trying to make a correction in the Seminary. We love it. We do not wish to destroy it. Trustees have a moral control, but no legal control. The board must elect one of the three nominated by the committee. Personal loyalty to Christ involved in the wife and husband question and interruptions and much personal spirit and bad temper. Applause and laughter alternated.

"He made a mistake sixteen years ago and then came out and avowed the Independent articles as a thing to be proud of and as a discovery. Dr. Whitsett is orthodox, but defective.

The time is coming when no matter what a professor teaches it will be impossible to remove him. He may say he believes the creed and be not a Baptist.

Dr. Kerfoot here asked several questions, which Dr. Eaton answered. Dr. Eaton concluded and Dr. Penrod read affidavits of C. M. Thompson, J. H. Burnett, B. J. Davis, W. M. Hall, W. H. Vaughan, Mary Rogan, L. D. Caldwell, to the effect that Dr. Whitsett had said a wife ought to join her husband's church. A point of order on taking the vote by yeas and nays was raised by Dr. Kerfoot and overruled. The roll-call then began. The regular vote showed 176 for the resolutions and 22 against. A call of the absentees increased the final figures to 202 yeas and 25 nays.

Monday Morning's Session.

As soon as the Association reconvened this morning R. G. Seymour, Missionary and Secretary of the Bible Department of the American Baptist Publishing Society, was introduced and recognized by the body.

Dr. T. T. Eaton's resolution for a Commission of Education, a special order for Monday morning, was passed after the elimination of the Co-ordination clause.

Dr. Jno. D. Clardy, our Congressman, attended today's session of the Association.

The report of the State Sunday School Board and that of State Executive Board were read and referred to eight o'clock to-night.

A Cuban resolution was offered by Dr. J. S. Coleman and passed unanimously.

Resolved, That a committee of five, each of whom shall be a member in good standing in some one of the churches of our State, be appointed by the Moderator who, on behalf of this General Association and of the churches and membership which it represents, petition the President and both Houses of Congress of the United States, that in the formulation of a government of the island of Cuba they exercise their fullest and strongest influence to secure the incorporation into its fundamental laws of that principle so just in the sight of God and man and so dear to every true-hearted American, which will guarantee beyond all possibility of repeal the fullest equality of religious rights and privileges to every inhabitant of the island.

Most of the forenoon was devoted to the discussion of missions, and this subject is still not finally settled. The temperance report is the next thing on the program.

Many of the delegates are leaving, but the association will not finish its work before to-morrow.

Dr. Whitsett's Sermon Sunday.

Dr. Whitsett preached at the Cumberland Presbyterian church yesterday as announced in the KENTUCKIAN. Besides the congregation, he was heard by a large number of delegates, and visitors from other churches.

Dr. Dexitt introducing him, spoke in elegant form and with modest compliments of Dr. Whitsett, whom he had known since the year '57, and who is now at the head of the largest Theological Seminary in the United States.

Dr. Whitsett took his text from the Song of Solomon, 3 Chapter 4 verse, "I found him whom my soul loveth."

Those who came expecting to hear an outburst of oratory were doubtless disappointed. His sermon was a poem of peace, full of the "sweet reasonableness of Christianity." His words were those of a teacher, the philosopher, and containing not a single note or echo of defiance. Neither was there anything in his appearance to indicate the stormy session of the Association through which he had passed on the previous day, unless it was in the evident longing for peace that pervaded his entire discourse.

At the Churches Sunday.

The program of church services announced in Saturday's KENTUCKIAN for Sunday was carried out with one or two changes. Dr. T. T. Eaton went to Madisonville and Dr. Carter Helm Jones preached at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock and Dr. A. J. Barton at night. Dr. M. P. Hunt, who was to preach at the colored Baptist (Virginia-street) church, went home and his place was filled by another appointment.

DR. CLARDY RETURNS.

Arrives Saturday From Washington for the Summer.

Congressman J. D. Clardy has returned home from Washington for the summer. Congress has not adjourned, but the business in the House has been about finished, and there was nothing to keep him there. He arrived just in time to look after the harvesting of his big crop of wheat. He was in the city yesterday attending the Baptist Association and shaking hands with his friends in the city.
